Participation Covenant Statement

Friday Night Friends and Cave Spring Baptist Church are committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all children, youth, and volunteers who participate in activities sponsored by these organizations. The following policy statements reflect our commitment to preserving this program as a place of safety and protection for all who would enter. No adult who has been convicted of child abuse (either sexual abuse, physical abuse, or emotional abuse) should volunteer to work with children or youth in any of these sponsored activities.

As a volunteer in this program, I indicate my agreement to abide by each of the items listed below by initialing in the space provided:

Respect and protect the inherent human dignity of each participant with whom I have the privilege to work, and strive to treat all participants with respect

Serve as a positive role model, and witness by my speech and actions by maintaining an attitude of respect, loyalty, patience, courtesy, and maturity, to act and react with love and understanding in all situations

Interact in a way that is affirming to the goodness of all participants, and adds to their positive self image and which enables mutual acceptance among themselves

Aid in the building of this community in which all may feel secure and valued

Maintain a positive personal relationship with the participants of this program

Observe and abide by the above policies regarding working in programs with all participants

Observe the "Two-Adult Rule" at all times

Participate in training and education events provided by the church related to your volunteer assignment

Agree to promptly report abusive or inappropriate behavior to my supervisor

Agree to inform the program director or coordinator if I have ever been, or ever am, convicted of child abuse
