

Parent's Newsletter

September 6, 2009

Dear Parents,

This past Sunday evening, I met with several of you to discuss some of the happenings for the next few months. Below is a list of things discussed to make note of. Please make sure you read through it. If you have any questions, let me know!

In Christ,

Jason Cockayne
Youth Pastor

- 1. Parent's Involvement: Nothing is more important in your teen's life than YOU! Take time to find ways to ask or talk about lessons they have learned each week in youth. Here are some helpful ideas.
  - a. Ask Jason to be on the Parent's Page list to receive weekly emails about how you can help follow up on the Sunday School lesson.
  - b. Go to the "Lessons Page" on our webpage to see what was taught on Wednesday night or Sunday night. Ask your teen about the lesson.
  - c. Encourage your teen to do their devotions & memorize the week's verse.
  - d. View our "Ways I Can Volunteer" at the "Parent's Page" on our website.
- 2. Youth Fantasy Draft: Points are awarded on Sunday mornings and Wednesday nights for teens who memorize scripture, do their devotions, bring their Bibles, and inviting friends on their "prospect list". We will be awarding teens at the end of each month.
- 3. Wednesday Night: We will be finishing off 2009 with a walk-through of the basic Christian teachings of the Bible. In January, we will kick off our "True Love Waits"! More information coming soon on that!
- 4. Sunday Night: For the remainder of 2009, we will take a break from TeamKid and will be doing a study on a book of a Bible (6:30pm). Our main goal is to encourage teen discussion and teach them how to study their own Bibles.
- 5. Things to purchase: Devotion books for 2009-2010 are just $5. I still have more t-shirts left if anyone didn't get one ($10). Generation246 Drawstring Bags are $5 or $3 if you have purchased one before. Winterfest is coming up...look online!
